Church Letter

From Elaine Allison, Lay Minister, St. Michael's, Shap

Have you ever heard of St. Cuthbert? He made his home on Lindisfarne - Holy Island (connected to the Northumberland coast by a causeway that is regularly completely submerged by the sea), spending time in prayer and meditation.

Perhaps we should learn something from his example, as there are times when we need to get away from it all, if only for a few moments, in order to make time for God and ourselves.

We live our lives today at such breakneck speed, rushing here, there and everywhere. Despite having labour saving devices that our grandparents couldn't even dream of, we are part of a society that suffers from exhaustion and burn out as we try to cram even more activity into our already overcrowded lives. We need to pause and ask ourselves where we are going. We need to stop, take a stroll in the garden, or just do nothing for a few minutes. We need to step back for a while.

In both Luke's and Mark's Gospels we read that after dismissing the crowd and taking leave of his disciples Jesus went up on the mountain to pray. Jesus at key times in his life made time for quietness, spending time alone, away from the interminable pressures and demands put upon him.

Of course, this can be difficult, when the children are screaming, and there's a pile of washing to see to, when there's another meeting to attend, or the shopping needs to be done, stepping back seems like a luxury we can ill afford.

But it is a necessity, a step we sometimes need to take.

Sometimes God will step in, to ensure that we do take time out, for Him and for ourselves. We might find ourselves 'laid up' for one reason or another, giving us time and space to rest and reflect.

Stop, look again and see God's kingdom, the proof of his love, all around us.

Biblical Names

An occasional series by Christopher Jenkin

Names go in fashions, and in recent years parents have started to call their children by names which are found in the Bible – though they are not always aware of that, nor of who the Bible character was.

Enoch: Enoch is one of the earliest characters in the Bible, found in Genesis 5:21-23 – the great-grandfather of Noah. The key verse about him says: "Enoch walked faithfully with God; then he was no more, because God took him away." He was a man with a profound faith relationship with God; and it seems that he did not actually die, but was taken away directly by God.

Esther: The Book of Esther records a vivid and exciting story of the time of the exile of the Jews in Persia; Esther, a beautiful Jewish girl, was chosen by King Xerxes to be his queen, and because of her position she was able to foil a plot to massacre all the Jews in Persia, a deliverance celebrated by Jews to this day as the Festival of Purim. The Book of Esther never mentions God specifically, but one verse says "Who knows if perhaps you were made queen for just such a time as this?" – which implies God's providence hidden in the background.

NOTE - The management committee of The Link regret that it is unable to distribute literature for other organisations. Articles received after the 13th may be held over until the following month.

A VIEW FROM TEBAY

From Pam Lawson

When we moved to Tebay nearly two years ago, it was a glorious summer's day - cloudless skies and perfect sunshine. What a wonderful introduction to the place that we now call home - so often battered by the elements, yet constantly ruggedly beautiful.

Recently we have all been enjoying an exceptionally long spell of summer weather, along with the light evenings and stunning views on every side... although we do now rather desperately need some more rain! Living here impresses on me every day that God delights to display his creative artistry wherever we have eyes to see it - and that we are called to be responsible stewards of the planet that he has given us.

'Caring for God's World' was the theme of a recent 24 hour 'Escapade' deep into the countryside with the Tebay Kids' Band (read more about it in Bicci Clark's write-up in this issue of The Link).

Have you ever taken a full 5 minutes of silence to just observe a small patch of grass right in front of you and really notice what is there? Or sat in a forest treehouse drinking hot chocolate, sharing your all-time favourite book with your friends and explaining why you like it so much? Perhaps you have a favourite place in the outdoors that you love to visit - have you painted it, explored it through drama, or thought about what it would be like if people destroyed it for profit?

All of these experiences formed part of our learning and thinking together about why and how we can do our part to protect the wonderful world around us. We reflected on the words of Psalm 8, which inspired us to write our own song: God is infinite, yet he cares for us in the minute detail of our lives. Our own response must surely include a passion to care for his planet and all who live here.

All Saints' Church is an important focal point within Orton village. Expensive repairs are carried out so that the doors can remain open, both for regular Sunday services, and for those important times in life like baptisms, weddings and funerals; and this is only possible because so many parishioners help in so many ways.

So we want to say "Thank you!" to all those who work quietly in the background in such tasks as cleaning, grass cutting, and opening and closing the church on a daily basis; to those who help at and support the monthly coffee mornings, as well as major events like the recent Exhibition. It is all so important and enormously appreciated!

Service Times from September onwards

From 2nd September onwards all services at All Saints' Church will start at 10.30 a.m..

The one exception is the service on the 2nd Sunday of each month which will still be a said service of Prayer Book Communion starting at 8.30 a.m..

Important Advance Notice

On Thursday 13th September from 3.15pm–4.15pm the NSPCC will be coming into Orton School to run an

for all parents/carers/adults.

Being online is currently the biggest threat to our children's safety. Are you aware of the dangers? It can happen to anyone—anywhere. Please put the date in your diary and make it a priority to come along to find out how you can help your child stay safe online.

Handy hints for safe internet use:

- Ask your children to tell you about the sites they like to visit and ask why.
- Check what are the age limits for the websites or apps they are using.
- Ask them about how they stay safe online. What tips do they have for you?
- Have you talked to your child about what is OK and not OK to share online?
- Ask them if they know where to go for help if they are unhappy about what they are seeing or experiencing online.
- Think about how you use the internet. What more can your family do to stay safe and have fun when using the internet together?

WE NEED YOU!

Orton Market Hall is run by a small committee of Trustees that meets about four times a year. Together, we ensure that the Market Hall finances are sound and we organise any maintenance or other activities that are needed to make this facility as useful as possible to everyone in and around Orton.

We've currently got a couple of vacancies on the committee for more people to get involved. You don't need to have any particular skills - we're just keen to recruit people who'd like to keep Orton Market Hall running well for years to come and want to put something into the village community.

If you'd be interested in finding out more, please contact the Secretary, Felicity Lawler, via the village Post Office and Shop, or get in touch via the Orton Market Hall Facebook page.

Thank you.

My Weekend at The Learning Fields

On Saturday evening we went to the Learning Fields near Appleby for the weekend, for a "Band Escapade" organized by Pam Lawson.

There were 5 of us girls in Pam's Band (which plays at family services in St James' Church); apart from me, there were Issy, Olly, Katie, and Ruby, and we all shared the same dormitory.

The "Learning Fields" is a big farm house with a big garden, with a swamp, pond and a forest in it.

When we arrived we had tea and then did some song writing and story sharing (mine was about The Hobbit) and then we went for a walk around the garden. Bed time was after hot chocolate at 9.30 pm.

On Sunday we had breakfast at 8am and then made sandwiches; after that we did some religious stuff! At 10.30 we had a Music workshop and a Drama workshop, then we went and played games until lunch (a picnic using the sandwiches we made earlier).

After lunch we had a craft workshop and I painted a white mug with pictures of Otter Island (my special place) on the River Lune.

Before we came home we had a 'Celebration', the theme being 'Caring for God's World', where we talked about how God looks after us and so we must look after God's world.

The food was very good, made by Abbi Lawson, and we had plenty of snacks and cakes. It was a great weekend, very meaningful as well as being enjoyable.

Taking Funerals Seriously

Tuesday 10th July, 9.30 a.m. – 2.30 p.m.

United Reformed Church, Lowther Street, Penrith

A Training Day, open to everyone involved in any aspect of funeral ministry, not just those who take services. It is an opportunity to find out more about supporting people with bereavement. If anyone is interested in assisting in a pastoral way in your parish contact Revd. Sandra Ward.

25,000 people have conversations with churches in Carlisle diocese every year as a direct result of a life event such as a bereavement. There are around 400,000 visitors a year to services that mark a birth, marriage or death.

Find out how these people can continue their faith journey and become part of the church's story.

"Simply the best training I have been to in 20 years of ministry" – delegate, Chester

"So many practical ideas that will make a difference." – delegate, Lichfield

The day will be led by Revd Dr Sandra Millar, Head of Life Events for the Archbishops' Council. She heads up national works around baptisms, weddings and funerals, encouraging churches to think about best practice, and developing resources that help parishes to build good pastoral relationships with those they meet at these moments.

Greenholme Show

What a lovely day we had for Greenholme Show this year.

Despite the beautiful weather and the generosity of our many sponsors, The Show made a loss of around £500 -£700. (Final figure still to be confirmed).

We hope to run a couple of fund-raisers later in the year. We hope that you will once again support us in these. Please look out for details.

Now for the thankyou’s.

To all the amazing people who entered exhibits – from towering tups to rhubarb, from sticky brownies to boozy sloe gin, from furry badgers to imaginative vegetables, from photos to make us laugh and remember all that snow and children’s entries to make us smile.

To the judges and the president for their support and work on the day.

To our many sponsors who helped to provide prize money, raffle prizes and their continuing support.

To Graham Mawson for the use of his field.

To our hardworking committee and volunteers who work so hard to ensure this local show continues.

And finally to all the visitors - regulars and first-timers - who have supported our local show.

Thank you all. See you next year - June 8th 2019!

A HUGE “THANK YOU” from CHRISTIAN AID

We had a phone call today from “Christian Aid” asking us to thank everyone who supported Christian Aid Week in this area.

Chris and I would also like to add our thanks to those who came to the Coffee Morning and gave so generously of their time and gifts, to make the morning happen, and ensured that it was such an enjoyable place to be. Especially when we were competing with the Royal Wedding!! And even the washer-up seemed to enjoy himself!!

We had stalls, games (including Bat the Rat), cake stall etc, but best of all was the lovely atmosphere as people sat and laughed with friends. And of course, we were blessed with perfect weather to sit outside.

But there is more to it than that. We know that our giving will make a difference to the lives of others in need, through the work of Christian Aid. We in this country have so much, many in the world sadly do not. So thank you all so much.

The amount sent to Christian Aid was £855.

A SHORT HISTORY OF ORTON CHURCH EXHIBITION AND GIFT DAY

When Margaret and I came to Orton in 1963 the Revd. Harold Sawrey was the Vicar. The major annual events for raising money for the church were the Church Sale and the Gift Day. The Church Sale was held in the Market Hall on the last Saturday in November, with various stalls – cakes, produce, bottles, Christmas, School, bric-a-brac, etc. – in the main hall and refreshments in the Supper Room

The Gift Day was held in church in late May when the Vicar and a couple of churchwardens (there were six in those days!) would sit at a table in the chancel with a brass plate placed in the centre. During the afternoon parishioners would come to place their donations, in a sealed envelope, on the plate, and stay for a short while to have a chat.

This procedure was successfully continued over the years until the Revd. Colin Levey took his turn at the table in church with the wardens in 1992, and awaited the arrival of the parishioners with their envelopes. Nothing was said until the next PCC meeting, when Colin, very quietly but firmly, stated that he was not going to sit in church all afternoon to meet just three or four people. So the PCC would have to come up with a better idea!

During that summer Margaret and I were invited to a family 70th birthday party in Whitby, and on the way we stopped at Goathland on the North Yorkshire moors for refreshments. Duly refreshed we went to have a look in the church, and what a surprise we got as we entered. They were having a Flower Festival, and we both said “The Gift Day in Orton!”

It was discussed at the next PCC meeting but it was decided that for various reasons this would be difficult in Orton, but we had made a start. Various suggestions were put forward and pulled to pieces, and it was eventually decided on “Orton Crafts and Produce” as the first theme. It would be in the church over the late May Bank Holiday weekend. People who had skills were asked to contribute and exhibit their goods; rotas had to be organised for making and serving refreshments, and for stewarding the exhibits and welcoming visitors. It proved very successful, socially and financially, and was felt to be worthwhile doing the following year, but with a different theme. It was to be called “The Church Exhibition and Gift Day”. And so it has continued to the present day – though not without its ups and downs.

Over succeeding years the Exhibitions have varied from the very interesting to the rather disappointing, and in 2016 it was felt that we needed some “new blood” with fresh ideas. A meeting was advertised for anyone interested and a number of younger ladies turned up full of ideas. To complicate matters a wedding had been booked for the Saturday morning, so the church could not be decorated until after 1.30pm and eventually it was decided to follow the real wedding with a “Scarecrow Wedding”. The group started working on their scarecrows in late October, and worked together as a team, with a lot of chin-wagging, leg-pulling and general good humour every Monday evening, through the winter to the end of April, when it all came together. By 2.30 on the day the scarecrows were in their places for the second wedding of the day!

For the 2018 Exhibition on the theme, “The Four Seasons”, the same group split into four and each worked separately on their season – and you all saw the wonderful result (see overleaf). It could not have been achieved without a lot of thought, very hard work, dedication and vision, to keep going for six months with a deadline to meet.

I am sure I speak for all our readers when I say, “Thank you all, most sincerely, for a job very well done and much appreciated.” And a very big “Thank you” to everyone who helped, in any way, with a very successful Exhibition, raising the sum of £7,650.

THE FOUR SEASONS

Orton Church Exhibition

“Prepare to be astounded!” I heard a lady, who had already visited the Exhibition, say to her friend as she led her into the porch of All Saints’ Church.

And astounded was what surely all of the hundreds of visitors felt, as they walked round the brilliant and varied displays. Many people came more than once; many found that on their second or third circuit of the four seasonal aisles, they noticed beautiful, clever, or amusing items that they had missed the first time round.

Certainly those who rushed round and went out again three minutes after coming in (and sadly there were some), missed out on an uplifting and gripping experience, which was only appreciated by those who took their time.

“What talented people you have here!” exclaimed some visitors.

“What a tremendous lot of work has gone into all this!” commented others.

“How long did it all take?” wondered many.

Or just – “Wow!!!”

Visitors were struck by the creativity and imagination that went into mounting such an Exhibition. They were deeply impressed by the skill and artistry shown in creating so many of the exhibits. And it was obvious that many, many hours – indeed months – of work had been devoted to the project by the team of about twelve people who put it all together.

We perhaps all had our favourite parts of the display. I think mine was probably Autumn. The beautiful fretwork screen that framed it all was stunning; all the little details among the leaves and pinecones, that needed time to examine, were delightful; and I was deeply impressed by the forethought and care that had gone into collecting dozens and dozens of fallen leaves, and then preserving every single one with PVA to stop it disintegrating – and that must have been done last October! And the scarecrows, lolling over footbridge and chair, added a charming touch of humour.

But all the seasonal displays were fascinating. How much skill, how much time did it take, for heaven’s sake, to create those hundreds of paper flowers of all kinds – daffodils, crocuses, tulips, and all the wonderful blossoms on so many trees and branches?

I was fascinated by some of the little touches: the “stone wall”, made entirely of paper (was it Amazon wrapping paper?!) The cardboard potting shed. The watering can tilting to pour out a stream of sparkle. The hare crouched in the snow. The picture of Harry and Meghan framed in red, white and blue hearts.

And those bicycles outside! They offered a charming and colourful welcome to visitors as they came into the churchyard. I wondered, somewhat fancifully perhaps, if the creative team were going to ride the bikes in procession around the village and neighbourhood to advertise the Exhibition! But I fear the pedalling days of some of those bikes were long past.

One could go on and on expressing amazement and admiration. Those wonderful four seasonal dresses on dummies in the chancel! How many hours went into sewing all those fabric flowers on the summer dress! How much imagination into creating the twig-and-leaf autumn frock!

A delightful idea was the provision of “Creatures to find” sheets to entertain the children who came in – find insects, or squirrels, or rabbits, or birds! It was lovely to hear the excited calls of the children as they hurried round the displays, and triumphantly discovered some little creature to tick off on their sheet.

And we must not forget the valiant team of welcoming stewards, and especially those wonderful and unfailingly cheerful ladies who prepared and served the cream teas and cakes, hour after hour, day after day. When I was a vicar in a parish I sometimes found that people assumed that I lived in the church. (Vicars in TV soaps always seem to be found in their churches!) But I suspect that some of our hard-working team of waitresses virtually DID live in the church during those nine days of the Exhibition! They must have been utterly exhausted by the end.

The poster outside, inviting people in, expressed the hope that visitors might find the Exhibition not just interesting but uplifting. I was chatting to a lady who had come with her husband from Penrith. It was clear that she was a Christian and a churchgoer. I mentioned that the Exhibition had no specifically Christian content. “Oh, I totally disagree!” she exclaimed. I had been meaning that there were no biblical verses associated with the displays; if I had been involved in the creating of the elegant floral arch, for example, I might have added a text, “Enter his gates with praise!” So I asked the lady to explain what she meant. “As soon as you come into the church, the glory of God and the beauty of his creation are there all round you!” she affirmed.

I don’t know whether the design team who had expended so much skill, imagination and sheer hard work on the project had such a thing in mind. But that was the response of at least one enthusiastic and appreciative visitor!

The churchwardens, the PCC, and all those of us who value and love our church just want to say to all the creators of our Exhibition and everyone else who helped in any way – “Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!”

Notes from The Herald July 1918

Fine, warm; thunderstorms 16th-20th. From 14th July, throughout Britain, ration books will be needed for meat (1lb), butter or margarine (5ozs), lard (2ozs) per person per week.

Orton's William W. Raine, a youth, was called up by the Army but appealed to the Tribunal which assigned him to a local farm instead.

Tebay Endowed School's Headmaster since 1876 is leaving, retiring to Kendal. He came to Westmorland in 1876 as a master at Orton School, thence Tebay as Head. The School presented him with a silver teapot, cream-jug and sugar-basin on 4th July. The School also presented Mrs. Simpson with twelve silver dessert-spoons. She's been here 6 years but is now leaving to look after her husband, wounded in France and now disabled. Mr.

Stephenson is two years beyond retirement age and is Westmorland's oldest Headmaster. His two sons are in the Army; one of them is a POW in Germany. Tebay's new Vicar, the Rev. J.W. Dixon (Millom) is to be instituted at a service in Carlisle Cathedral on 17th July. The Army called up Mr. W.J. Wharton, 50, married, an agricultural merchant. He appealed to the local War Tribunal which exempted him for six months. Tebay's War Savings Association total is the lowest of the 16 in the Kirkby Stephen District at £39: top is Newbiggin-on-Lune, £666.4s.0d, Ravenstonedale's is third at £476.5s.0d.

Ravenstonedale also has a new Vicar, the Rev. J.C. Turner, instituted early in July. Ravenstonedale Fell End Wesleyan Sunday School Anniversary on 7th, a lot there for service, concert etc. Ravenstonedale's sub-Postmaster these 48 years, Mr. Michael Wilkinson, 83, died on Wednesday 10th. He was always ready by 9am, loved the Bible and Spurgeon's sermons. Presentation to him 14 years ago.

Died at Park House, Ravenstonedale on 14th, Mr. Thomas Handley aged 73. He had been ill for seven years. On Thursday, 11th, flu and bronchitis set in. (There is a flu epidemic in Eden this month. It has closed Penrith's schools till the Autumn term starts.) He came of a Ravenstonedale family, married Miss Bessie Tinniswood, Gt. Salkeld; farmed Settra, now Setteral Park (near Askham) for 20 years, thence Park House as tenant. His mother (very old) is still living in Ravenstonedale. A quiet, friendly man he had seven sons and one daughter. Two of the sons and the daughter are now ranchers in USA. One son is in the Army. Thomas Handley's father lived at Northwaite and farmed part of Park House before him. He (father) was a Quaker and sent Thomas to the Friends' School, Kendal. Thomas was a Tory. He also farmed Mountain View next to Park House and ran 1800 Blackfaced sheep on the fells and kept Galloway cattle on Park House till 1908. Big funeral.

Many thanks to Jeremy Godwin for the Notes.

Now that summer is here, our Head Chef Scott and his talented kitchen team have been creating plenty of new dishes using the bountiful supply of local fruit & vegetables found on our doorstep.

This month's highlights include:

Wild garlic, new season asparagus, heritage tomatoes, courgettes, and much more.

Why not come and see what all the fuss is about? Enjoy our full a la carte menu in the candlelit restaurant, sample local hand-pulled ales in the bar, relax with a coffee in the lounge, or attempt a spot of sun-seeking in our attractive beer garden. Rest those walking legs in one of our 4AA Gold Star rooms, many of which are dog friendly, and we even have our 3 bell tents up and running for the more adventurous amongst us.

We are open all day, every day, serving breakfast, coffee and cake, lunch, snacks, and dinner, including a traditional Sunday Roast.

We also offer private rooms for special occasions and function hire. Please ask one of our team for more information.
